

Contessa

from Strata Tiles

Natural Stone Range

Welcome to Contessa

Welcome to The Natural Stone Range from Strata Tiles, and in particular Contessa, a rich and textured hard wearing stone quarried from northern Spain and specified in stunning projects across the UK and Europe.

Like most natural stones, Contessa is extremely durable and can be used both internally and externally.

Technical Details

This is a natural stone product in these eight finishes. Each tile is unique in colour and tone due to being a natural mineral. Check with Strata Tiles for professional cleaning standards..
