

St Wilfrids is a new £16 million state of the art hospice in Chichester. Langley Design were delighted to work with Kier again on this project to manufacture and install cycle parking facilities, planters and door barriers. The cycle shelters were clad with horizontal Western Red Cedar timber in order to tie in with the cladding to the building and the steel was powder coated black in order to provide a neater finish.

