

Harrowden Shadesman Seed

- Product Order Code SEED-SHADESMAN
- Available from Harrowden Turf Ltd, Colpmans Farm, Islip, Northamptonshire, NN14 3LT
- Standard Size 200g bag
- Sowing Rate

Over seeding
3g per square metre. 65m² coverage.

Establishing a new lawn
5g per square metre. 40m² coverage.
- Growth

Harrowden Turf Shadesman seed is ideal for repairing an existing Shadesman lawn. The single species, Poa Supina, is native to Alpine regions and creates a medium textured low maintenance lawn. Harrowden Turf Shadesman seed can also be used for growing a shade tolerant lawn from scratch. Shadesman Seed can be slow to germinate, for best results sow between March and September.
- Typical Seed Mixture 100% Poa Supina
- Uses

Shaded landscaped areas.
Commercial landscaping.
Domestic lawns.
Golf tees.
Racecourses.
Hardwearing amenity areas.
Urban Areas.

Shadesman seed is ideal for repairing existing Shadesman lawns or can be used to create a lawn from scratch.

Features

- Extremely high shade tolerance.
- Drought tolerant.
- Good year round colour that is impassive to climate change.
- Close mowing capability.
- High shoot density with unique stoloniferous creeping ability.
- Low maintenance requiring up to 50% less mowing than a conventional ryegrass lawn.
- Compatible with most growing mediums found throughout the UK however this seed is not suitable for areas with poor drainage or waterlogging.

