White Granite

A dynamic street furniture range creatively designed by Czech artist Matouš Holý to encapsulate the expression of the natural landscape. Consisting of a coordinated lounge, bench, chair, stool and table; the Organic Range adds contemporary style to a space whether it be indoor or outdoor.

Polyurethane paint (used in the automotive industry) adds significant lifespan, maintaining a high quality glossy finish.

White Granite

The design is inspired by the animal kingdom, creating a modern yin and yang work of art.

The unique curved design of the bench permits the harmonic combination of two colours.

Colour availability in white, black and red.

Products also available in white granite painted with anti-decay coatings.

Complete the set with a table, a seat or an individual piece from the same range.
