

Linares Table

If you want a great looking outdoor space the Linares Table perfectly complements the range of Linares street furniture products and creates a consistent, stylish look. A welded steel frame construction clad with timber slats gives this table a classically simple yet bold design.

Outdoor eating is becoming a more popular social event, and named after the Andalucian city, the table is available in either hardwood or softwood variations to ensure that it's a very popular Bailey Streetscene product.
