

Bringing history alive

snug activity card 1

During the playtime that followed a lesson on life during the Blitz, a whole class spontaneously re-enacted scenes from the history lesson on World War II using the kit to create their own interpretation of what they'd learned about.

Extensions:

- Follow play sessions with creative writing based on the stories developed in play
- Imaginative artwork - look at Henry Moore's shelter drawings

Learning links

- History
- Literacy - discussion/creative writing
- Citizenship

'It was great - we'd been doing the Blitz and when we went outside they were using the kit to make Anderson shelters and tunnels - the whole class ended up working together' Key Stage 2 teaching assistant